

MARGARET'S CURIOUS COLLECTION

Mason's sister, Margaret has an interesting collection of cat statues that she likes to display in a special cabinet.

Mason told her that museums display objects by arranging them according to information about the objects.

Open Margaret's cabinet and discover all the different ways she can show off her cat collection.

Look on the back of this sheet and find a map of the United States.
Discover which state each cat came from by matching the design on the cat statue with the design on the correct state.
Can you name each state where Margaret bought a cat?
